Leonora District High School

Year 11 & 12

Student Contract

The following are considered vital to the success of the program for participants and as such, are standards which must be maintained throughout the program. Failure to maintain these standards will result in a review of student enrolment in the program.

1. Attendance – Absence from any aspect of the program must be explained by parent/carer with a legitimate reason immediately following the absence. Students are expected to maintain 80% or better attendance throughout the course.

2. Conduct – Students are ambassadors for the program, the school and the community. Reports will be used to monitor students. Any poor or unacceptable behaviour will result in a review of student enrolment in the program.

- Performance – Strong motivation is an expectation of students enrolled in the Leonora Year 11 & 12 program. It is expected that all homework/assignments will be completed by the due date to the best of the students' ability.

I _____ have read and understand the conditions for participation in the Leonora District High School Year 11 &12 Program for 2009. I understand that failure to meet these conditions will result in a review of my enrolment in to the program.
